31st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

Jesus does not wait for our invitation, but invites himself to be our guest. Zacchaeus, a tax collector (whose position made him a collaborator with the hated Romans and suspected of extortion) is so anxious to see Jesus that he forgets his dignity and climbs a tree. The crowd is surprised that Jesus should notice this short man, and impatient when the Lord hurries him down and invites him to the rich man's house. Zacchaeus is joyful, but the crowd is taken aback by this instantaneous conversion. The man proves his sincerity by pledging both charity and restitution in abundance. Jesus is delighted to bestow the blessing of salvation on a house where no one expected to be saved. Lyrically, the first reading sings of the mercy and forgiveness of God, who loves everything he has made and holds in being. God wants us to be saints whose glory is Christ, Paul writes. Why, then, become excited about miracles, apparitions and false messages? Our faith must not be superficial. We the Christian community should be the sign of Christ's glory in the world.

The Shepherds' Trust cares for those who always cared for us ... our retired priests.

They were with us to joyfully celebrate our marriage, baptize our children and also support us during times of sadness and grief.

A copy of the Trust's annual newsletter is Given to parishioners with next week's bulletin. Find time to read the personal stories about how priests have greatly influenced the lives of so many of us. The SHEPHERDS' TRUST also recognizes the faithfulness and years of service to us by members of religious orders working in the Archdiocese.
