14th SUNDAY in Ordinary Time - A

Today's liturgy invites us to become intimate friends with Jesus and the Father. Christ teaches God's wisdom, which reverses human values; to accept it we must be people of simplicity, the little children of the gospel. Like children, we can learn about the Father only from the Son, for we cannot hope to know God on the basis of human reasoning. Jesus invites to his school those who will listen to a meek and gentle teacher. The content of his teaching is his own life, held up as a pattern for discipleship. Because he does not ask of others what he himself has not experienced, his yoke is easy and made light by love. That Jesus lived what he preached is apparent in his entry into Jerusalem. There simple people hailed a man without worldly prestige, fulfilling Zachariah's prophecy about a peace-bringing Messiah who would be humble even in triumph. How can we accept this upsetting of our value system? St. Paul assures us that the Spirit forms us into new people, giving us the mind of Christ Jesus.

**TICKETS FOR MASS ARE NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE**

"Let anyone with ears listen! Do you hear God's call for you in your life? Have you considered the way of loving called "priesthood" or "religious life"? If you feel you are being called to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life contact

Rev. Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or on vocations@vocations.ca or call Rev. Fr. Dominic Borg, OCD at 416-757-2806 or at olfatima@rogers.com for more information.

If you see love as a compromise, a defeat, you're mistaken. It's a victory. Above all in time of war, when men are filled with death, this is the time to love. This time to choose.

An act of love may tip the balance.

15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - A

We are to be optimistic in preaching the Good News and patient in waiting for its harvest. God's word is as effective as rainfall on seeded ground. The earth's fruitfulness is image and proof of God's care. But what of the limited success of Jesus' (and the Church's) ministry? To insist on its future yield, Jesus tells a parable in which the incredible harvest exceeds all expectations. God's kingdom is like that; from small beginnings will come superabundant reward. But why is the word of the kingdom fruitful in some hearers, rejected by others? We have to act on the word and be changed by it, dying like seed in the earth. The Christian community shows varying degrees of receptivity to the gospel. With all creation we struggle to be conformed to God's plan, St. Paul explains in striking language. We overlook our present imperfect state for the future glory toward which the Spirit draws us. No harvest comes without toil, yet it is God's word which initiates growth and makes it bear fruit beyond our hopes!
