16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - A

The kingdom parables describe, in homely terms, what it is like to live under God's rule – not in the glorious future, but in his presence now. The parable of the wheat and weeds urges patient waiting in an imperfect Church until the Day of the Lord. That will be time enough for God (not ourselves) to separate the good from the useless. The Book of Wisdom praises God, whose power makes him just and merciful. We sinners hoping to be forgiven must not act differently. The psalm states our trust in God's loving mercy. We must be faithful, and not judge others proudly. The other parables tell about the nature of God's kingdom. Like mustard seeds, insignificant beginnings prepare for future glory; like yeast, God's hidden presence actively transforms the world. Matthew then tries to explain how Jesus' words can be rejected: only disciples understand their meaning. But how can we disciples commune with the God of mystery? In our weakness, St. Paul explains, the Spirit prays within us to God.

17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - A

Jesus continues to speak in parables, giving his hearers opportunity for personal decision. The treasure and pearl teach the same lesson: when surprised by a discovery, or finding what was long sought, we joyfully give up everything we own to acquire the most precious thing. That is how we are to behave when faced with a choice for the kingdom. The third parable about the net presents the Church as place of God's rule. His servants are to seek out without distinction sinners and saints for membership in the community; at the end, God will sort out the good from the bad. Finally, the wise Christian realizes that Jesus' teaching completes the Law and the Prophets. In today's first reading, Solomon requests the gift of wisdom so that he can judge rightly for his people. He typifies the wise person who discerns the kingdom's presence. Wisdom makes us love God's law instead of giving it grudging obedience. St. Paul describes the life of those who live in Christ: everything contributes to their becoming images of Jesus.
