17th Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 25, 2021

In the Gospel many people hunger for a small amount of food. In our day, there are too many people for the small number of priests, sisters, brothers and deacons. We too must trust in the Lord by praying for vocations. If you feel God is calling you to a Church vocation call Rev. Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997; email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Mark Robson at 416-757-2806 or at olfatimasc@archtoronto.org for more information.

Monday, August 2, is a ...

CIVIC HOLIDAY

No Morning Mass both church and office are closed all day. Thank you.

The Church is now open in full capacity. If you cannot register just come anyway we have space for you! Let us come and worship together.

17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – B

Jesus' miracles are signs revealing who he is for us. In John, the multiplication of loaves forms the basis for Jesus' teaching about himself as the bread of life, which we must accept for our nourishment or reject for our death. The gospels of the next four Sundays will reflect on the meaning of this sign. In John's telling, Jesus is alone, followed by a large crowd. He is concerned to feed all these people, and he questions the disciples: Where will they obtain food for so many? Then, with a blessing similar to that of the Eucharist, Jesus alone distributes the few loaves and fish to the crowd until they are filled. In their enthusiasm – they hope for an easy life without labor – they recognize Jesus as the messiah but misunderstand the sign. Jesus has to escape; again he is alone. Today's first reading gives an Old Testament example of how God provides beyond all expectation. Ephesians exhorts us, who share so much in common, to live in loving unity. Above all, Christ feeds us with one spiritual food, the Eucharist.

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - B

Why do we seek Jesus? Is it for the wrong reason, to satisfy material or egoistic needs? Like the crowd in the gospels, are we looking for still more signs and proofs? This crowd did not understand that the gift of manna to the chosen people starving in the wilderness (see today's first reading) educated them to trust in God and to appreciate everything as God's gift. In the gospel, Jesus presents himself as God's message, the bread from heaven, which sustains us for eternal life. Indeed, he is even more than that, as we see when he offers us an immediate relationship with him. But we must accept him on his own terms. Jesus' reply to the crowd's request for food is phrased in the style of God's self-disclosure in the Old Testament, I am. Not only are we to believe in Jesus, we must enter into living communion with the bread of life. The letter to the Ephesians urges us to a revolutionary change of lifestyle. We will become new people if we accept Jesus' accept Jesus' invitation and make him central in our lives.

Notice to Altar Servers!

This is to inform all... ALTAR SERVERS are once again allowed to serve during the Holy Mass. Please come 15 minutes early for preparation. Also to remind you that only black shoes are acceptable for serving. If you have any question please contact the office at 416-757-2806 during office hours or speak to Andrew before or after the Mass.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time -August 01, 2021

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." Today's readings remind us that the priest is ordained by the Holy Spirit to be the means by which Jesus' words are fulfilled. If you feel God could be calling you to a Church vocation call Rev. Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997; email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Mark Robson at 416-757-2806 or at olfatima@rogers.com for more information.

In the weekend of August 14/15 there is a second collection for CATHOLIC MISSIONS IN CANADA & SCARBORO FOREIGN MISSIONS. Donations can be drop off in the box in front of the sanctuary. Please be kind and generous!

Have a blessed and joyful summer with your friends and loved ones!
