'Who do people say that I am?' Who do you think Jesus is? The depth of our faith is rooted in our answer. Is God calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon? If you think you are being called to a Church vocation call Rev. Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997; email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Mark Robson at 416-757-2806 or at olfatimasc@archtoronto.org for more information.

Special Collection ...RENOVATIONS FUND

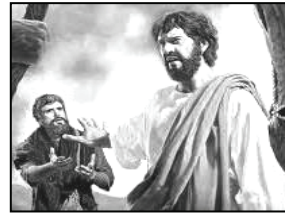

During all Masses this weekend, September 18/19 we have a 2nd collection in support of the parish's Debt Payment for construction of the Church. Envelopes are available in donations envelopes and all church entrances. Donation can be drop off at the box in front of the sanctuary.

Thank you for your generous support!

24th SUN IN ORDINARY TIME - B

To be true to his task as the Christ, God's anointed one, Jesus must suffer. Christians too must take up their cross, a fearful reality, and follow their Lord. These difficult words are spoken as Jesus' ministry has taken him far from Jerusalem. From now on he will make his way to the place of his death with firm resolve. But Peter, first to recognize Jesus as the longed-for messiah, objects, and is sharply rebuked for playing the part of Satan by tempting Jesus to depart from God's will. There can be no compromise: to save our life we must carry our cross. Jesus had read of his destiny in the scriptures and accepted the Father's will for his life. In the first reading we see the suffering servant of the Old Testament prophecy. This innocent victim and peaceable non-resister turns the other cheek. His body is bruised and spirit is unflinching, for God is at his side. We Christians should read the letter of James with special care. It is not enough to profess our faith with Peter; the proof lies in renouncing self and loving our neighbor with deeds of charity.

ShareLife Campaign 2021

Living the Gospel by supporting residents of long-term care

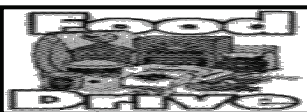

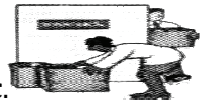

The Houses of Providence in Scarborough is a ShareLife-funded agency that provides long-term care for seniors. "It's been hard during COVID-19," says Mary, one of its residents, "but we understand the precautions that staff are taking. Providence staff have been absolutely wonderful and are doing a good job. I thank them every time I see them for their hard work." Did you know that you can contribute to ShareLife agencies like the Houses of Providence through Pre-Authorized Giving? Please consider making a monthly contribution to ShareLife using PAG. October 3 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the special collection or anytime at sharelife.org.
