28th Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 10, 2021

If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that new dream. Jesus asks the same as any great leader...total dedication; but He promises rewards no one else can promise.

“You will have treasure in Heaven, then come, follow Me.” Come, follow the call of Christ as a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you think God is calling you to one of these call Rev. Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997; email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Mark Robson at 416-757-2806 or at olfatimasc@archtoronto.org for more information.

28th SUN IN ORDINARY TIME - B

Jesus invites us to a life of love and personal commitment to him which goes beyond keeping the commandments. Since we follow Jesus to the Father, today's gospel sees him refusing the homage which is given to God alone. As with the rich man, Jesus looks with special love on those who seek to commit themselves more fully. He invites each one of us to abandon whatever gets in the way of disciple-ship. The sadness of the rich man, who was too tied to his possessions to choose spiritual treasure, reflects the loss suffered when someone refuses Christ's invitation to special friendship with him. How dangerous wealth is! Only God's grace can overcome this impediment, Jesus says. But what of those who have given up everything for him? Jesus does not promise an easy life – they can expect persecutions – but they will be richly rewarded both now and forever. The gift of wisdom, praised in the first reading, leads us to choose God. Hebrews reminds us to take seriously God's word which calls us to commitment. We are judged by that word if we refuse to heed it. Is our treasure really in heaven?

Mass Attendance Survey 2021

This survey, requested by our Archbishop Cardinal Thomas Collins, is intended to provide an accurate profile of 'Mass Attendance' in our archdiocese. It will be done during all the weekend Masses and over two weekends – October 16/17 and 23/24– and it will involve a number of ushers and volunteers doing a 'head count' in every section of the church at the start of the homily. Thank you for your co-operation and understanding. Thank you for your co-operation in this exercise.

Share Life Sunday

Living The Gospel By Supporting Frontline Workers

Day in and day out, frontline workers have been working tirelessly during the pandemic. While they are there for us, who is there for them? Catholic Family Services agencies have served countless people who are on the front lines during the pandemic, providing counselling and support. Your gift to ShareLife is helping them cope with the stress and anxiety of being exposed to illness. If you haven’t given to our parish campaign, I invite you to do so on ShareLife Sunday on October 31. You can also give anytime using a ShareLife envelope in the collection, or by donating online at sharelife.org.
